

“My Goal is to help you achieve your goal!”

Marie Healey is a Top-Producing Estate Agent with Prudential California Realty in the Beverly Hills Branch.

Marie began her distinguished career in real estate 25 years ago in Newport Beach, California, selling property in the same neighborhood where she was raising her 3 children. During mid-career, Marie moved to the Beverly Hills area, at which time she joined the Jon Douglas Co. and later Prudential John Aaroe and Associates. Since then, Marie has become a well-known and respected agent, servicing the entire Westside of Los Angeles.

During the course of her quarter century career, Marie has continued to represent Buyers and Sellers, amassing numerous awards as a “Top-Producer,” acknowledging her outstanding sales achievements. In addition to her duties as an independent agent, Marie also serves as the “Assistant Manager” in an office which boasts 120 agents, as well as acting as a “Mentor/Training Director” to new licensees.

Marie’s unparalleled commitment to service has earned her a reputation as one of the Westside’s most dedicated real estate professionals. Marie regards her keen ability to listen to her clients whole-heartedly and respond to their needs, to be her greatest strength as an agent. It is no wonder that she has garnered an impressive following of repeat and referral clients. Marie’s motto holds true: “If you give your customers great service, they will come back to you again and again.”

When it comes to knowledge, ability, and sales history, Marie is the superior choice as the trusted representative to handle your next real estate transaction. Remember what Marie always says: “My Goal is to help you achieve your goal!”

During the last several years, Marie has been involved in numerous sales transactions at the Century Towers, making her a pre-eminent expert within the Community.